

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach Position Announcement

This position reports to the Director of Strength and Conditioning. This position is responsible for the Strength and Conditioning for the men's basketball team along with other teams as assigned, within the guidelines of the University, Conference and NCAA rules.

The expectations of the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach:

- Supports the Mission and Core Values of the department
- Maintains Student-Athlete records; complies with confidentiality and privacy guidelines of FERPA and HIPAA
- Mentor, supervise and train graduate assistants and interns in strength and conditioning
- Responsible for full compliance with University, Department and NCAA regulations
- Carries out effective and proven methods of injury prevention and rehabilitation
- Develops student-athletes through safe, proven and effective teaching, training and coaching
- Effectively communicates with all parties and follows protocol relative to injuries and illness
- Collaborate with Athletic and University support units to ensure Student-Athlete health, safety and well-being
- Responsible for the efficient use of all Department resources
- Understand that the logo is always on as they model professional behavior
- Committed to ongoing professional development and lifelong learning
- Perform other duties as assigned by the Director of Athletics

Qualifications: Bachelors degree required/Masters preferred; Minimum 1 year experience beyond undergrad preferably working with basketball; Division 1 experience is preferred; Must have or be eligible for certification through CSCS and/or SCCC. CPR certification required. Demonstrated commitment to diversity and experience promoting inclusive excellence is required.

Applications: A complete application will include a letter of application, resume and contact information of three references. Send application materials to Interfolio at <http://apply.interfolio.com/139235>. For questions regarding the search, please contact Mark Bonnstetter, Deputy Athletic Director & Search Committee Chair at mdbonnstetter@eiu.edu.

Diversity and Inclusion: Eastern Illinois University is committed to fostering a learning community where all members feel welcomed and valued. The university provides equality of opportunity in all areas of campus life and we strive to recognize and appreciate the unique value of our students, faculty, and staff. Every member of campus has the right to learn and work in an environment free of discrimination and harassment, and beyond that, our goal is for all members of our community to develop a strong sense of belonging to Eastern Illinois University.

The University and Community: Eastern Illinois University takes pride in creating a warm, welcome environment for all faculty, staff and students. Established in 1895, EIU boasts a rich, tradition of preparing students for their personal and professional goals. A traditional regional residential institution, EIU offers a superior education at a relatively low cost while consistently earning high rankings and distinctions for its affordability, academic program quality, career placement rates, campus safety, online degree options, student support, and sustainability initiatives. EIU focuses on individualized attention and superior student relationships, and has earned recognition as the highest- ranking independent public regional university in Illinois and a place among the Midwest's top public regional universities according to U.S. News and World Report. Eastern offers faculty a wide range of research and public service activities. EIU hosts more than 175 student organizations on campus, and offers a variety of cultural events, NCAA Division I athletics, and active research opportunities for its students to enjoy and to thrive. EIU has become recognized for providing the resources of a large institution while creating the kinds of individual relationships that support student and alumni success.

The University is located in East Central Illinois, combines the benefits of a community of 20,000 with access to several large cities, including Chicago, St. Louis, and Indianapolis.

Eastern Illinois University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer minority/female/disability/veteran - committed to achieving a diverse community.