INSIDE SALES REPRESENTATIVE

Imagine working for a large tier-1 supplier in the exciting world of automobile manufacturing. If you enjoy collaborating with a multi-cultural and diverse group of employees, this could be the opportunity for you. Futaba North America provides management support to its automotive parts production companies in North America. The Futaba Group leverages its core technologies such as stamping and welding to create value added products that are in line with the needs of consumers, deliver peace of mind, and promote environmental initiatives that contribute towards a sustainable society.

We are looking for an inside Sales Representative to function as a business-to-business professional, who serves as the primary sales contact for our mid-sized customers. The purpose of this position is to maintain positive and engaging relationships with our customers by supporting them through every customer life cycle stage. This role entails selling automotive products by phone, email, and online with some in-person contact. This position will be based at our headquarters office located in Bloomingdale, IL. Major responsibilities are as follows:

- Develop and maintain working relationships with existing OEM clients.
- Execute sales strategies with assigned customers.
- Lead all aspects of the quotation process, including collaborating with others in solution development, pricing management, and cost recovery.
- Interface with other departments to allocate and understand costs associated with current and new business.
- Evaluate cost and fixes strategy to recover additional margins.
- Compile sales information, perform profit analysis, and generate actionable reports and dashboards.
- Ensure external quality and delivery targets are met.
- Manage customers' experiences by proactively providing pre and post purchase support. Respond to customers' questions and concerns and take appropriate action to resolve issues.
- Track open commercial items.
- Coordinate requests for trade and supply chain surveys, meetings, and other deliverables.
- Maintain communications with management and sales team on progress, issues, delays, and other pertinent information.
- Maintain professional currency in technical knowledge and relevant products, services, and marketplace developments.
- Maintain frequent communications with overseas parent company.
